Church Ministries and Volunteer Opportunities

The vision of First Presbyterian Church is to be a city center church compelled by Christ's love to make disciples in our homes, city, and the world.

The purpose of First Presbyterian Church is to:
Glorify the Triune God,
Edify the church family for godly living, and Testify to the world about the gospel of Jesus Christ.

Note: Although we update this directory twice a year, that does not guarantee a totally up-to-date directory. If you are interested in participating in a particular ministry, reach out to that ministry's contact person as listed in this directory to get the most current information.

Camp Vesper Point: Camp Vesper Point is a beautiful summer camp and retreat center located on 120+ acres beside the beautiful Lake Chickamauga near Soddy Daisy, TN. A Chattanooga tradition since 1954, Vesper Point became a summer home for campers and staff who love the outdoors and seek an authentic relationship with Christ. The cornerstone of each summer are counselors and staff who exemplify Christ and share their testimonies each evening during Vespers, while overlooking the lake. Activities include water skiing, swimming, bouldering, the Hoe Down, and all sorts of other adventures. These activities serve as stepping-stones for creating a Gospel centered community where campers and staff are drawn closer to Christ. Volunteer opportunities include: volunteer workdays, equipment donations, and prayer. If you are interested in hosting an event at camp or have a desire to spend time at camp, please contact:

Camp Director Forrest Walker at forrest@vesperpoint.org.

Children and Youth Ministry

Mike Haberkorn, Pastor of Discipleship, Children, and Youth,
mike@1stpresbyterian.com

Cherie Brown, Youth Ministry Logistical Coordinator,
Cherie@1stpresbyterian.com

Children's Ministries: Children's Ministry focuses on discipling our children ages infant through 5th grade. Our vision is to help kids See Jesus, Savor Jesus, and Share Jesus to the end that God would be glorified in Chattanooga and to the ends of the earth. Children's Ministry includes regular, ongoing ministries such as Sunday School, Children's Church for ages 4-years-old through 1st grade, the Worship Bags Ministry (resources provided to children during early and late service services), Wednesday evening Midweek meetings for PreK-5th graders, the Bible Memory Work Ministry for 2-year-olds through 5th graders, as well as special events like Operation Christmas Child, Mission Vision (missions conference for children during the church's missions conference) and Vacation Bible School (VBS) which is an opportunity to reach our children and their families as well as unchurched children and their families. Volunteer opportunities for each of the above ministries are currently available. Emily Brelsford, Kids Ministry Director, emily@1stpresbyterian.com

Youth Department (MS/HS): The Youth Ministry of First Presbyterian seeks to make disciples of Christ, teaching and leading students to develop a personal, transformative faith in response to the Lord's calling in their lives. Through small groups, Sunday teaching, worship, retreats, mission trips, events, and one-on-one mentorship, Youth Ministry at First Pres fosters a gospel-centered, authentic community of servants of Christ. We long for a Scripture-saturated culture in which students can be vulnerable with others as they seek to know the Lord and live a life in light of eternity. Volunteer opportunities: Sunday School teaching, weekly Youth Group, small group Bible studies, retreats & conferences.
Zach Mashburn, zach@1stpresbyterian.com
Brad Roberts, Youth Director (effective January 2023)

Church Care Ministries: Volunteer opportunities abound in our Church Care Ministries. Church members interested in volunteering in any of the ministries described below may contact the leader of that ministry or:

Chris Ehlers, Pastor of Assimilation and Congregational Care, chrisehlers@1stpresbyterian.com

Assimilation: Assimilation is the process by which a person visits the church, desires to join, completes the Inquirer's Class, meets with an Elder, is accepted into membership, and is then enfolded into the life of the church in a comprehensive way. During the process, inquirers are encouraged to use some simple assessment tools that help them identify their spiritual gifts and areas of ministry they are passionate about. They are encouraged to worship regularly, join a Sunday School class and/or a small group and get involved in a ministry. Church members who volunteer to help with Assimilation can help administer the spiritual gifts tools, assist with the Inquirer's Class, or come alongside new members as they get "plugged in."

Chris Ehlers, chrisehlers@1stpresbyterian.com

Congregational Care: Congregational Care is a large umbrella of opportunities to serve our members, and especially our senior adults at First Presbyterian. Our Honor Roll lists about 100 members who are unable to attend worship or other activities regularly. Volunteers keep in touch through phone calls, notes and visits. Annual deliveries of small cakes and poinsettias during holidays help to remind the recipients that they are remembered. A special focus on widows and widowers culminates in an annual luncheon highlighted by the choir and many helpers. Volunteers can also serve by participating in Monday morning prayer group and receiving and using the church prayer email.

Teresa North, northh@comcast.net

Priscilla George, csps@epbfi.com

Bereavement Meals: As an extension of Care and Concern within the church, this committee was formed for the purpose of serving a meal for the family of a deceased church member following his/her funeral or memorial service. Several teams, headed by a leader and co-leader, rotate their opportunities for service. Generally, any volunteer will only be called upon to serve a meal at every 7th or 8th funeral.

Marilyn Boxell, msboxell@epbfi.com

Card-E-Ology: The Card-E-Ology ministry makes free cards in several categories for First Presbyterian members and friends to use to encourage others. We are dedicated to sending our God's Holy Word in every card we make. We create cards and also repurpose donated cards. Cards are made for the general population, for other ministries in the church (such as, Care and Concern, the Children's Ministry, and Prison Ministry), and for visiting missionaries. This is a volunteer ministry, and anyone who can sort, cut, fold, and/or glue and design is welcome to join us. We would love to have more workers, as we stay busy with the 3000+ cards we make each year. We meet most Fridays!

Jane Fitzpatrick, janesfinejewelry@gmail.com

Card ministries: Individuals designated for the month take time to send notes and cards to Honor Roll / Honored Friends and Seniors who are celebrating a birthday. Volunteers also send notes to new parents, new members, those who have recently lost a loved one, and those who are marking the first year after the passing of a spouse, child or parent. To join one of these card ministries, contact

Teresa North, northh@comcast.net

Care and Concern visits: Care and Concern is the visitation ministry at First Pres where volunteers offer encouragement to our homebound members by visiting them in their homes and bringing small gifts. We can always use more teams for visiting.

Priscilla George, csps@epbfi.com

Don Elkins, donelkins@epbfi.com

Gigi Gross, gggross@epbfi.com

*Daily Hospital/sick/bereaved prayer list: A daily email list of anyone in the hospital, prayer requests, newly bereaved, new additions, and military associated with First Pres. Contact the church office to get on the email list.

Office@1stpresbyterian.com

*E-prayer list: Receive up-to-the-minute prayer requests from church members, their families and friends, via email.

Gigi Gross, gggross@epbfi.com

Flower Ministry: The floral arrangements in the Sanctuary each Sunday during worship services are generously donated by our members. When the flowers are no longer needed in the Sanctuary, volunteers meet, take the flowers apart, and arrange them into smaller bouquets for those in the hospital, nursing homes, etc. Volunteers are needed to donate and to deliver flowers.

Connie Crawford, missconnie2u@epbfi.com

Gigi Gross, gggross@epbfi.com

Golf Cart Ministry: The golf cart ministry, administered by the Deacons, provides transportation to attendees in need of help getting from a church parking lot to the church entrance.

Rick Collins, recollins@epbfi.com

Greeters: Each Sunday, volunteers stand at the Connector, the black and white foyer, and the Douglas Street doors, to greet everyone who enters the building. The greeters offer a bulletin or other information as well as a friendly smile and warm welcome to First Pres. These volunteers are the face of the church and make the "first impression." A minimum of 4 volunteers are needed each week.

Marilyn Boxell, msboxell@epbfi.com

Honor Roll: First Presbyterian's honor roll consists of members who are home bound or need assistance getting around (Honored Friends). Volunteers are needed to encourage our honor roll members by delivering Easter cakes and Christmas gifts, sending cards, making calls, and paying visits to members' homes.

Mary Coleman, mcoleman0718@yahoo.com

IAWL (It's A Wonderful Life): A ministry that serves the senior adult members and friends of our church. The meetings are held the second Thursday of each month from September to May. Each gathering begins with a time of fellowship, followed by the meeting itself which includes a devotional, prayer, special program, and a hot lunch afterwards. The cost of the lunch is $8.00. Wonderful day trips are offered periodically. A newsletter for this group is printed 4 times a year. We welcome both volunteers and participants!

David Cooper, cannon55@epbfi.com

New Babies Ministry: This ministry coordinates communication of a baby's birth throughout the church so that different ministries and church personnel can do their part in ministering and serving the baby and family.

Mary Haberkorn, mary.haberkorn@gmail.com

Meredith Clark, meredithpclark@gmail.com

Heather Ewalt, heather@heatherewalt.com

Teresa North, northh@comcast.net

*Monday Morning Prayer Group: Prayer for our church family and missionaries. Weekly, Monday at 10:00 AM, Session Room.

Faith Cochran, \(423\) 894-5742894-5742)

*Phone prayer chain: A long time ministry for some of First Presbyterian's women is to call other women members to join them in prayer for serious medical needs of any church member. For the prayer chain contact:

Margaret Spangler, \(423\) 309-4923309-4923)

Stephen Ministry: A lay caring ministry of the Church: Stephen Ministers are members of our congregation who receive special training to provide confidential one-to-one Christian care to people experiencing challenges in life—grief, loneliness, divorce, hospitalization, disability, job loss, and many other life difficulties. To learn how to become a Stephen Minister—or to receive care from one—Contact a pastor or Stephen Leader (Chris Ehlers, Rick Collins, Leslie Cory, John Henegar, Betty Hodges, Kay Schwieger).

Rick Collins, rcollins@epbfi.com
Leslie Cory, lesliecory@comcast.net

Support Groups:

Beatitude Living: A Christian Women's 12 Step Program Committed to Recovery. Some of the needs addressed include perfectionism, control, codependency, eating disorders, or coping with the addictions of a family member or friend. Tuesdays 12:00 Noon - 1:00 PM, Room 404.
Nancy Mills, nmills322@aol.com
Gail Pinchak, gailpinchak@yahoo.com

Caregivers Encouragement: The Caregiver's Support Ministry gives encouragement to those who are caring for loved ones. Volunteers are needed to call, write, and/or visit caregivers.
Marcia Christian, mjchris9@gmail.com

TLC - Touching Lives for Christ: Volunteer to be part of the committee in your neighborhood which takes a meal to someone who is ill, has been hospitalized, had a baby, or experienced a death in the family.
C.C. Edwards, ccgedwards@comcast.net
Teresa North, north@comcast.net
Ann Walldorf, acwalldorf@gmail.com

Widows/Widowers Ministry: The widows and widowers outreach team seeks to serve our church community by periodically planning luncheons and outings for our widowed members. We also send cards and make phone calls of encouragement.
Ann Walldorf, acwalldorf@gmail.com

Deacons: An elected office

The office of deacon is set forth in the Scriptures as ordinary and perpetual in the Church. The office is one of sympathy and service, after the example of the Lord Jesus; it expresses also the communion of saints, especially in their helping one another in time of need. It is the duty of the deacons to minister to those who are in need, to the sick, to the friendless, and to any who may be in distress. It is their duty also to develop the grace of liberality in the members of the church, to devise effective methods of collecting the gifts of the people, and to distribute these gifts among the objects to which they are contributed. They shall have the care of the property of the congregation, both real and personal, and shall keep in proper repair the church edifice and other buildings belonging to the congregation. In matters of special importance affecting the property of the church, they cannot take final action without the approval of the Session and consent of the congregation.

(Chairman) Jasper Reynolds, jasper@liftmediagroup.com

(Vice-Chair) Patrick Frees, frees47@gmail.com

(Secretary) Bob Jackson, bojengr@epbfi.com

(Treasurer) David Gaither, dgaither@scoreintl.org

(Past Chairman) Dale Rardin, DaleRardin10@gmail.com

Deacon Committees and Teams:

Facilities Team: Concerned with the state and condition of Church facilities and property, planning for ministry uses of the facilities, its maintenance and general upkeep. The Committee prioritizes and presents needs as part of the budget process and identifies any situations which require immediate action to the Diaconate. The Committee plays an important role in the development and monitoring of a facilities long term master plan, ongoing maintenance plan, and building or renovation projects.
Mitch Everhart, mitcheverhart@gmail.com

Communications Committee: This committee works to enhance the Church's communications both inside and outside the Church. The committee oversees all aspects of website, video, social media, newsletter and other forms of church communications and publicity.
David Clark, dclark@rssiins.com

Mercy & Compassion Committee: The Mercy and Compassion Team is in charge of benevolence to church members and nonmembers, including walk ins. Member assistance is led by the shepherds who present requests to the team on a case by case basis. Nonmembers, including walk-ins, are served through the Rapha Fellowship, a relationship focused ministry that seeks to walk alongside our neighbors in need through a weekly meal and Scripture based educational classes in the areas of relationships, finances, and work. Volunteer Opportunities: Co-leader in weekly Rapha classes, ally/mentor to participants, managing the Attire for Hire store, walk- in appointments, and more!

John Parkhurst, japarkhurst@gmail.com

Finance Committee: Oversees all financial activities of the Church to include oversight of gifts, financial policies, reports, financial documents and practices. The Committee also reviews all church audits, church receipts, disbursements, accounts that are unaudited and receives and reviews requests for money not previously approved. The Finance Committee is the first line of approval for the annual Deacons Budget. Skip Pond, skip@pondholdings.com

Ministry Support Team: All available Deacons, both active and inactive, are requested to serve on Usher Duty. A head usher is assigned for each service. The chairman and his co-chairman will arrange for all to serve on a rotation basis so that enough ushers are on duty for every worship service. Deacons will also be assigned for requested helps with church related ministry functions, funerals, musical programs and other special services at during the year.
Dale Granberry, daleg13@gmail.com

Leadership Development Team: Identifying, vetting and nominating qualified candidates for election to the office of Deacon. The team also evaluates elements of the Diaconate's culture and structure to ensure healthy recruiting, retention and ongoing training, and makes proposals to the Diaconate accordingly. The committee is made up of all Diaconate committee chairs/team leaders plus 3 at-large members selected by the Diaconate Chairman.
Patrick Frees, frees47@gmail.com

Discipleship Ministries: Church members interested in volunteering in any of the ministries described below may contact the leader of that ministry or the pastor who heads up the Discipleship Ministry Team:

Mike Haberkorn, Pastor of Discipleship, Children, and Youth,
mike@1stpresbyterian.com

Adult Sunday school: Joining others in fellowship, Bible study, discussion and prayer is a great way to grow in faith but also to establish close relationships with fellow believers. There are many classes covering a range of topics and groups for all adults from college age through seniors. Volunteer opportunities: teaching, hospitality.

Don Holwerda, Church Administrator, don@1stpresbyterian.com

In addition to these regularly meeting classes, the Adult Sunday School Department occasionally offers studies on specific topics that meet for a season and then disband. These studies are advertised on the church web site.

History and Church Archives: The Archives for the First Presbyterian Church of Chattanooga is the physical repository of the historical documents and artifacts pertaining to the church from its founding in 1840. Worship services and ministries are documented and organized chronologically. Special attention focuses on gathering weekly worship service bulletins and announcement sheets. These contain the heart of the record of occasions in our church for worship, education, fellowship and service. Special seasonal activities to record include those of Camp Vesper Point, Missions Conferences, and other special gatherings. There are numerous sources for additional contributions that are considered for inclusion. Volunteers meet weekly to maintain these records.

Men's Ministries

Mike Haberkorn, Pastor of Discipleship, Children, and Youth,
mike@1stpresbyterian.com

Ongoing Men's Ministries:

Becoming a Spiritual Reproducer, a small group video-based training series for mature Christians to learn how to become a disciplemaker. There are seven sessions in the series which include a "Disciplemaker's Story", an Instructional video, and homework for each session.

Lee Atchley, leeatchley7@gmail.com

Mike Lapihuska, mlapihuska@cbmc.com

First Cup: Monthly Men's Breakfast meeting on the first Tuesday of every month. 7am-8am on the 10th Floor, starting September 6. Free breakfast and lots of coffee provided.

Midweek Ministry: Midweek is our large fellowship gathering on Wednesday nights intended to encourage, equip, and empower our church family to reflect the redemptive love of Jesus Christ to one another and beyond through diverse ministry opportunities and teaching for all ages. From mercy ministry to student ministry to adult equipping seminars and more, there is something for everyone! Volunteer opportunities: collecting money, serving line, helping with the various ministries that meet that night. Dinner in the Fellowship Hall at 5:30; ministry opportunities begin at 6:15. Mike Haberkorn, mike@1stpresbyterian.com

Small Groups: Small Groups are about relationships: growing in our relationship with God and deepening our relationships with others. Within these small groups, men and women can experience fellowship with others as they practice applying the gospel to their lives. Composed of 5 -16 people, small groups meet in various places throughout Chattanooga. All groups are led by trained leaders from our congregation, who receive oversight and support from our pastoral staff. Each small group determines how often it will meet, but groups typically meet two to four times a month. A small group meeting generally consists of worship, Bible study, fellowship, and prayer. Many groups will participate in service projects or social events as well. To learn how to become involved with a small group, register online or contact Mike Haberkorn. Volunteer opportunities include hosting or leading a small group.

Life on Life Groups: The Journey is a gospel-centered resource for discipleship, designed to help a disciple maker develop mature and equipped followers of Christ, who will be able to do the same with others. The curriculum is broken out into three years (Red, Blue, or Green) that are available for individual purchase. Your involvement in a Journey Group will result in you working through an intentional plan for spiritual growth, maturing in your spiritual life, and being equipped to share these principles with others. Your Journey Group will meet regularly in weekly meetings, and Journey Group members are asked to commit to one year at a time. Volunteer opportunities include leading or co-leading a Journey Group. Mike Haberkorn, mike@1stpresbyterian.com

Outreach Ministries (Home and World Missions):

Randy Nabors, Missions Pastor
(Effective October 1, 2022)

Home Missions and Community Outreach. We are working to grow congregational involvement in spreading the Gospel. Church members interested in volunteering in any of the ministries described below may contact the leader listed for that ministry, or one of these Outreach Ministry leaders:

Shad Guinn, Director of Community Outreach,
shad@1stpresbyterian.com
Lauch McKinnon, Chair, Outreach Ministry Team, lauch-mckinnon@comcast.net

Channels of Love (Thanksgiving baskets): Channels of Love is a ministry to people and families affected by HIV/AIDS. First Pres members have been giving food baskets at Thanksgiving to their clients for many years now. Some of our members have led their weekly Bible studies and serve in their office.

Mark Jenkins, markjenkins50@hotmail.com

College Ministry: First Pres College Ministry seeks to minister to students of Chattanooga (UTC, Chatt State, Covenant college) through the unique challenges that arise in college. First Pres (in conjunction with RUF and other campus ministries) longs to see students come to know the love of Christ Jesus surrounded by a community of believers. If you want to hear more about college ministry at First Pres, contact our Director of College Ministry:

Zach Mashburn, zach@1stpresbyterian.com

Good News Club: The Good News Club at Orchard Knob Elementary is a ministry of Child Evangelism Fellowship in which trained volunteers meet with children to present an exciting Bible lesson with songs and other fun activities. Each club includes a clear presentation of the Gospel and an opportunity for children to trust Jesus as their Savior. Members can volunteer by being on the Prayer Team, the Club Team, or the Snack Team. Nancy Hill, hills1113@comcast.net

Kids Hope USA: Kids Hope is a children's ministry that represents a "church/school" partnership. Volunteer mentors from 1st Pres. Church are trained and paired with underserved students at Orchard Knob Elementary School. Mentors invest one hour a week, during the school day, to encourage and help change the trajectory of a child's life. We are also seeking dedicated prayer partners to be behind-the-scenes support persons for each mentoring relationship. For more information, contact: Cheri Partain, kidshope@1stpresbyterian.com

Outreach Funding (Home Missions): The purpose of the Outreach Funding Committee is to further enable the ministry of First Pres and its membership by providing funds to support ministry activities which reflect obedience to the Scriptures and spread the Gospel of Jesus Christ in the Chattanooga area, in the East Tennessee/North Georgia region, and elsewhere within the United States of America.
Lauch McKinnon, lauch-mckinnon@comcast.net

Prison Ministry Committee: The Prison Ministry is a Christ-centered ministry where volunteers walk alongside individuals who are incarcerated. Volunteers are needed to help address the spiritual needs of prisoners by caring for and discipling them, and facilitating their return to families, the Christian community, and society.
Steve Schwieger, stephen.schwieger@gmail.com

Metanoia Prison Ministries: The PCA's prison ministry is headquartered here at First Pres. One thing it offers is correspondence courses to prisoners by matching them with church members as graders and encouragers. Join more than 20 First Pres members doing this good work!
Mark Casson, mcasson@pcanet.org

Prison Ministries (Walker State Prison): First Pres raises and trains male mentors for ministry at Walker State Prison. More than 100 mentors disciple twice monthly in two-hour one-on-one sessions. Mentors are needed for the 80-90 prisoners on the waiting list.
Mark Casson, mcasson@pcanet.org
Doug Craven, dccraven@comcast.net

Women's Prison Ministry at The Next Door: First Pres serves prisoners at The Next Door on Moccasin Bend, a pre-release facility for women leaving State Prison. Opportunities are available to women in our congregation to mentor residents and to join in select group activities there.

Leslie Cory, lesliecory@comcast.net

Rapha is ministry of First Presbyterian Church of Chattanooga that seeks to build relationships with our neighbors in need. While conventional mercy ministry relies on financial handouts, Rapha invites our neighbors in need into healing relationships with a loving church family.

Shad Guinn, shad@1stpresbyterian.com

Wednesday nights:

Fellowship Dinner: 5:30-6:15

Classes: 6:15-7:30

Rapha offers three different educational courses. Note: If you are interested in attending, please contact Pam Adams at Pam@1stpresbyterian.com

Faith & Works - focuses on the gifts that God has given and why He created work. Participants will create a resume, create and present a life map, create a 60 second commercial for potential employers, and so much more.

Faith and Finances- focuses on discussions about how we spend, manage, and save our money in a way that honors God, guards us against emergencies, and allows us to provide for our families. Participants will role play, set short-term and long-term savings goals, and create a custom monthly spending plan.

Faith and Relationships- Discussion focuses on our relationships with God and interpersonal relationships with each other, for example marriage and childrearing.

With a dedicated team of classroom facilitators, prayer warriors and lay mentors, Rapha is equipping the congregation to grow as a more welcoming church home for our neighbors in need. Rapha needs more volunteers like you!

Sacred Road Mission Trip (Yakama, WA): Church team trip to White Swan, Washington to join our home missions team on the reservation, sharing the love of Jesus by repairing homes, working and playing with children during Kids Club, interacting with adults during Bible lessons and informal activities.

David Hempy, dhempy@sphereone.net

Friday Morning at Salvation Army meets on Fridays at First Pres (connector building) for prayer at 9:00 and then drive as a group to the Salvation Army on McCallie Avenue. We provide music, devotion, and breakfast for approximately 25 individuals. Salvation Army's case worker also sends us screened referrals for our consideration of financial assistance. Ministry includes sharing our faith in Jesus Christ, encouragement, friendship, counseling, and prayer.

Volunteers are warmly invited.

Steve George, csps@epbfi.com

Hugh Huffaker, hhuffaker@mcgriff.com 423 605 4815

Volunteers in Medicine: VIM Chattanooga is a faith based free health clinic for qualified adults. Our employees coordinate more than 100 volunteers monthly including doctors, nurses, lab techs and clerical such as registration, and computer and phone work.

World Missions:

World Missions is the foreign missions arm of First Presbyterian Church tasked with making disciples in the world—facilitated through the targeted selection and funding of missionaries, indigenous church planters, short-term teams, and projects that promote the establishment, growth, and maturation of indigenous-led churches and movements in strategic global cities.

Mike Kramer, World Missions Executive Committee Chair,

mkramer@setrustcom.com

Elinor Espinosa, Executive Assistant of World Missions,

elinor@1stpresbyterian.com

World Missions offers a variety of ways to volunteer one's time and talents that include service on the following committees: World Missions, World Relief and Development, Hattie McCallie Missionary Closet, First Friends, and *Prayer Team. Additional ways to serve include providing hospitality to visiting missionaries, participating on a short-term mission trip, and volunteering for events and jobs during the annual World Missions Conference held in October.

First Friends: A team of caring First Pres. Friends of all ages who unconditionally befriend and love international college students and scholars while they study locally. We offer Bible studies, conversational English classes, recreational activities, parties, concerts, sports/games, shared meals, and a listening ear. Join us to serve our Lord by taking care of His young “strangers in a strange land.” If you can smile and be a friend, you’re totally qualified to volunteer. Join First Friends to serve Our Lord and stay for the love and fun.

Ashton Freeman, ashtonjfreeman@gmail.com

Charlene Hatmaker, charmtw@hotmail.com

Missionary Closet: The Hattie McCallie Missionary Closet provides quality, up-to-date clothing, accessories, and luggage to missionaries supported by First Pres and Lookout Mountain Pres. Volunteers are needed monthly to sort and display donations and to assist during the World Missions Conference in October. Volunteers meet on the 2nd Wednesday of each month from 9 -11 am on the 6th floor of the Tower building.

Music Ministry –

Our mission: As a ministry of music, our goal is God: to delight in him and help others do the same through the great hymns of the faith and the fresh, doctrinally rich songs of our day (Col 3:16, Eph 5:19). As a ministry our aim is to help the Church extol the greatness, wonder, beauty, and perfections of our God, in the power of the Holy Spirit, through the finished work of Jesus Christ. Volunteer Opportunities: Adult choir, Instrumental Ensemble, audio techs, vocalists, worship band musicians (guitar, bass, keyboard, percussion), handbells, music filing volunteers.

Notes to volunteers and ministry leaders:

If you want to volunteer and are having trouble connecting with a ministry leader, or if your ministry is listed in this directory and you need to make changes, contact Leslie Cory, lesliecory@comcast.net or Jessica Bayless (Communications and Community Coordination, Jessica@1stpresbyterian.com).
