First Presbyterian Church Ministries Volunteer Opportunities - 2020

Adult Enrichment Ministry Team: This team has the responsibility of the oversight of most church ministries that impact the growth and edification of the church member. This is a huge umbrella which includes Sunday School, small groups, visitation, congregational care, Stephen Ministers, Women's Ministry, widows, honor roll, strengthening families and many others. New ministries that are created and funded go through the Adult Enrichment Team. Volunteers who have an interest in these areas are welcomed.

There are many classes covering a range of topics and groups for all adults from college age through seniors. Volunteer opportunities: teaching, hospitality.

Assimilation: Assimilation is the process by which a person visits the church, desires to join, goes through a joining process (Inquirer's Class and elder appt.) and is then enfolded into the life of the church in a comprehensive way. This is so they don't slip out "the back door" 6 months to a year later. They take tools that help them identify their spiritual gifts and areas they are passionate about. They are encouraged to worship regularly, join a Sunday School class and/or a small group and get involved in a ministry.

Those involved with assimilation can help administer the spiritual gifts tools, assist with the Inquirer's Class, or come alongside the new member as they get "plugged in."

Congregational Care: Congregational Care is a broad umbrella of opportunities to serve our members, and especially our senior adults at First Presbyterian. Our Honor Roll regularly lists about 100 members who are not able to regularly attend worship or other activities. Volunteers keep in touch through phone calls, notes and visits. Annual deliveries of small cakes and poinsettias during holidays help to remind the recipients that they have not been forgotten. A special focus on widows and widowers culminates in an annual luncheon highlighted by the choir and many helpers. Musical accompaniment (piano, organ or guitar) is very much appreciated in the monthly communion-worship service that is held in the chapel of Alexian Village on Signal Mt. where many First Pres members are residents. Volunteers can also serve by participating in Monday morning prayer groups and receiving the church prayer email.

Bereavement Meals: As an extension of Care and Concern within the church, this committee was formed for the purpose of serving a meal for the family of a deceased church member following his/her funeral or memorial service. Several teams, headed by a leader and co-leader, rotate their opportunities for service. Generally, any volunteer may only be called upon to serve a meal at every 7th or 8th funeral.

Marilyn Boxell, msboxell@epbfi.com

Card-E-Ology: The Card-E-Ology ministry makes free cards in several categories for First Presbyterian members and friends to use to encourage others. We are dedicated to sending our God's Holy Word in every card we make. We create cards and also repurpose donated cards. Cards are made for the general population, for other ministries in the church (ex. Care and Concern and the Children's Ministry), and for visiting missionaries. This is a volunteer ministry, and anyone who can sort, cut, fold, and/or glue and design is welcome to join us. We would love to have more workers, as we stay busy with the 3000+ cards we make each year. We meet most Fridays!

Small Groups: Small Groups are about relationships: growing in our relationship with God and deepening our relationships with others. Within these small groups, men and women can experience fellowship with others as they practice applying the gospel to their lives. Composed of 5-12 people, small groups meet in various places throughout Chattanooga. All groups are led by trained leaders from our congregation, who receive oversight and support from our pastoral staff. Each small group determines how often it will meet, but groups typically meet two to four times a month. A small group meeting generally consists of worship, Bible study, fellowship, and prayer. Many groups will participate in service projects or social events as well. To learn how to become involved with a small group contact Mike Haberkorn. The Fellowship Hall Worship Team is a collection of talented, servant-hearted people seeking to help Christ's church have a fresh encounter with the living God. The two main areas of service are in the worship band and on the audio/visual team. If you sing, play an instrument, or have experience mixing sound, please contact West Breedlove (west@1stpresbyterian.com or text 423-834-3372). We are always looking for more to join us!
